First School Choir in Shenzhen to Win First Place Medals for Eight Consecutive Times

Established in 1989, Shenzhen Middle School Golden Bell Choir (SZMSC) has been striving for excellency by studying advanced international choral theories and skills. SZMSC has won championships and Gold Medals in numerous international and Chinese local choral competitions.

In 2001, the choir won Gold Medal at the 12th Australian International Music Festival. In 2002, they received two Gold Medals and one Silver Medal in the 2nd World Choir Games. SZMSC won 3 Gold Medals and 1 Silver Medal and was awarded the world champion in the category of Female Vocal Ensembles at the 2004 World Choir Games in Germany.

The choir achieved the first place in several categories and the Best Choir in Greater China in 2006 Hong Kong International Youth & Children Choir Festival. The choir also awarded the highest prize in the China National Children Choir Festival.

In 2004 and 2007, the choir achieved consecutive championships in the first and second National Primary Schools Art Show Vocal Competition. In 2008, invited by the International Federation for Choral Music as the only Chinese delegate, SZMSC attended the 8th World Symposium on Choral Music in Copenhagen Denmark. It took part in the Songbridge Gala Concert and played four concerts in the Symposium.

Furthermore, SZMSC was invited and held the Chinese and Foreign Classic Children Choral Music Concert at the National Centre for Performing Arts in 2009. Many famous artists spoke highly of SZMSC after watching the concert. The choir was also awarded National Outstanding Choir by China Chorus Association at the 4th Chinese Children Choral Music Festival.
